EAT. DRINK. ENJOY.

Founded in 1951 by Howard (Buzz) Kretzler, Kretzler's Tavern has been a beloved community staple for generations. For over 45 years, Howard's sons, Butch and Denny, continued this cherished tradition with dedication and care. Now, after 70 years and in its third generation, Brandon and Danielle Kretzler proudly carry on the legacy at Kretzler's Pine Creek Public House. Though the name may have changed, the same great recipes and commitment to exceptional, homemade meals remain unchanged. Our mission is to provide a welcoming space where families and friends gather to share good food and great memories. Drink, eat, and enjoy — together with us — as we honor our past and look forward to the future.
